

Catholic Journalism Seminar for Parish Workers
Circular 2005-04

To: All Parish Priest and Parish Workers in the Diocese:

In collaboration with the UST Journalism Society and the Journalism 3 class of UST, the Diocese is inviting the parishes to send participants to the Catholic Journalism Seminar on March 5, 2005, from 8:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. at the Good Shepherd Cathedral.

The purpose of the seminar is to provide basic training to those interested in starting or enhancing the publication of parish newsletters. Each parish may send at most two (2) participants. A minimum fee of P175 to cover workshop kits, lunch and 2 meriendas will be asked from each individual participant.

I invite you to take advantage of this opportunity to develop your parishioners' skills in news writing. The UST students organizing this seminar have generously committed themselves to serve us in this endeavor.

Given in the Chancery in Fairview, Quezon City, this 17th day of February in the Year of Our Lord, 2005.

Most Rev. Antonio R. Tobias, DD
Bishop

Attested to by:

Rev. Fr. Jaime Z. Lara
Chancellor