

Ladderized Program on Family Studies
Circular 2012-16

To: Diocesan Clergy, Head of Family and Life Commission, Religious Men and Women, and Diocesan School Heads

Starting June 2013, The University of Asia and the Pacific (UA&P) is offering Ladderized Program on Family Studies, which includes:

Basic Certificate Course (9 Units)
Diploma Course (18 Units)
Masters' Course (36 Units without thesis)
Master of Arts Course (36 Units with Thesis)

The Program aims to provide family and life workers with competencies to understand family theories and principles and to communicate these appropriately to all types of audiences. The targeted students are members of family and life ministry, guidance counselors for schools, high school and university teachers, priests and religious in family care apostolate, teachers in seminaries and formation houses, catechists and those from NGOs and academic institutions involved in family and life programs.

Those who are interested to avail this program may directly contact:

Mr. Antonio N. Torralba
Program Director
Pearl Drive, Ortigas Center, Pasig City
Tel. No. 637-0912, Local 288
(Look for Maricar Ledesma)

Given in the Chancery in Fairview, Quezon City, 30 July 2012.

Most Rev. Antonio R. Tobias, DD
Bishop

Attested by:

Rev. Fr. Jerome U. Rosalinda
Chancellor