

24 Hours for the Lord
Circular 2015-06

To: All Parish Priests

The Holy Father has welcomed the idea proposing once again the “24 Hours for the Lord” initiative which was celebrated last Lent with great participation and has set March 13 (Friday) and March 14 (Saturday) 2015 for this Lent. The Theme that will guide the reflection is “God rich in mercy.” (Eph. 2:4)

During these days, according to the possibilities and needs of individual parishes and religious houses, it would be meaningful to provide an extraordinary opening of churches with the possibility for confessions and Eucharistic Adorations concluding with the anticipation of Sunday Mass on Saturday evening.
